

Camp With An Impact

Frequently Asked Questions

What is Camp With An Impact?

CWAI is a camp specifically designed for students entering grades 6, 7 and 8 in the fall of 2012. It is a week long, overnight camp loaded with activities, authentic worship, creative teaching and excitement. For one week students get the opportunity to unplug from the distractions of this world and be engulfed in a community where they can focus on their relationship with God.

Where is Camp With An Impact?

CWAI takes place at Camp Adventure in North Webster, Indiana. It is only 18.1 miles from the WCC main campus to the grounds of Camp Adventure. We picked a close location that is convenient for parents and families.

Can I visit my student at Camp With An Impact?

With the location of CWAI being so close it is important to know that the grounds are closed to all visitors once the check-in process has been completed. This is in place for safety purposes. Visits from family and friends are highly discouraged due to the potential risk of homesickness. Visitation is done on a case by case basis through the director team of Evan, JR, and Matt.

What is Impact 2818 Outdoor Ministries?

Camp Adventure belongs to a network of camps called Impact 2818 Outdoor Ministries which is the camping ministry of Indiana Conference of the United Methodist Church. WCC Student Ministry partners with Impact 2818 Outdoor Ministries to bring you "Camp With An Impact." For more information on Impact 2818 Outdoor Ministries you can visit their website: www.beacamper.com.

How many students go and who are they?

Since Camp Adventure is a United Methodist Camp there is a potential for there to be students from all over the state. WCC Student Ministries has currently reserved a majority of the spots for this week of camp but they may not be the only students in attendance.

What do we do at Camp With An Impact?

Camp Adventure is a classic summer camp in the woods, so we are going to be doing many classic camp activities such as canoeing, campfires, and sleeping in cabins. We also plan to have some great worship, awesome teaching, an Olympic size swimming pool, paintball, a high and low ropes course, and lots of fun.

Who is in charge of Camp With An Impact?

Evan Overman, JR Gray, & Matt Goebel are the camp directors for this week. They are in charge of the programming side of the camp, which includes, worship, teaching, curriculum, cabin assignments, and the basic flow of the camp. The site staff for Camp Adventure is in charge of meals, facilities, and running the activities such as swimming and high ropes.

Camp With An Impact

Frequently Asked Questions

Who is supervising the students?

Safety is the number one concern of the Camp Adventure Site Staff, Camp Directors and Counselor Team. Your student will be supervised and cared for 24/7. Upon arriving at check-in on Sunday afternoon, your students will be assigned a same gender cabin. Two same gender counselors supervise each cabin. Your student will spend the majority of their time with one of those counselors. They will go to worship together, do activities together, and sleep in the same cabin together. Your student will spend 23 hours a day with that counselor. (The extra hour is a break time for the counselors in which the students are with the directors)

Who are the counselors and where do they come from?

Counselors are hand picked by the Camp directors. The counselors come from all walks of life from grandparents to seniors in high school. The counselors are carefully screened against 1 Timothy 3:1-7. Each counselor will have gone through the curriculum before the camp and will have been through a training process for that week of camp.

How are the counselors and students organized?

Each counselor has a different gender co-counselor. This pair we call a "home in the woods group." This group will spend most the time together and will do everything together except sleep in the same cabin.

Money?

There will be nothing for sale during the week. Please don't send money with your students. It only causes problems. T-Shirts and other items will be for sale during check-in and pick-up.

Can I be in communication with my student while they are at CWAI?

As a parent you have the ability to write emails and letters to your student while they are there. You can send letters to the following address:

A4012 - Impact Camp - [Camper Name here]
Camp Adventure
5121 North 1000 East
Pierceton, IN 46562

As a camper, your student can write you letters which will be mailed from camp. To increase the chance of getting mail from your student while they are at camp, we suggest that you send self-addressed, stamped envelopes with your students. Unless it is an emergency we don't allow phone calls or visits. Phone calls and visits can trigger or increase homesickness not only with your student, but also with other students at the camp.

Who do I go to with questions about billing, sign-ups, or anything not answered on this FAQ sheet?

All questions should be directed to Sarah Neel at the Student Ministry offices of Warsaw Community Church. Contact her at sneel@wccconnect.com or 574.268.0188 ext. 114.
